THE ELEMENTS OF HIGHER LIVING

Design that isn't just for design's sake. It fulfils a higher purpose here.
Elements work in harmony to make superlatives a part of the ordinary.
And life worth living.

LIFE'S A BREEZE

With wind funneling, Centenary is designed to keep homes and shared spaces actively ventilated and therefore naturally cool.

Simply Beautiful, Simply Perfect.

A FLORAL PALETTE

The road to higher living has been set among perfectly manicured gardens that make the experience transcendental.

COOL SUN SHADES

At Centenary, Sun shading fins on the South side

help in blocking out excessive heat and keep things bright and cheerful.

The East-West orientation of the staggered towers allow for an interesting interplay of light and cool shade.
